In this hilarious Christmas tale, a couple struggling to put on a church Christmas pageant is faced with casting the Herdman kids-- probably the most inventively awful kids in history. You won't believe the mayhem-- and the fun-- when the Herdmans collide with the Christmas story head on! They lie, steal, hit and swear, and they only wind up at church because they've heard snacks are available. When they get cast in the annual Christmas play, many of the parishioners fear that "ho ho ho" will turn into "horrid, horrendous and horrifying." But the Herdman kids just might learn a valuable lesson this holiday season and teach one, too.

Benefactor and patron tickets are available starting November 21. Season tickets are available on November 22 and general admission tickets are available anytime after November 23. Tickets are $10 for adults and $7 for ages 18 and younger. Call (641) 792-1230 for reservations. The box office is staffed weekdays from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. and 6:30-8 p.m., and one hour before each show. The box office will be closed the evening of November 23, 25 and Thanksgiving Day. You can also leave a message.

Set in an island paradise during World War II, two parallel love stories are threatened by the dangers of prejudice and war. Nellie, a spunky nurse from Arkansas, falls in love with a French planter, Emile. Nellie learns that the mother of his children was an island native and, unable to turn her back on the prejudices with which she was raised, refuses Emile's proposal of marriage. Meanwhile, the strapping Lt. Joe Cable denies himself the fulfillment of a future with an innocent Tonkinese girl with whom he's fallen in love out of the same fears that haunt Nellie. When Emile is recruited to accompany Joe on a dangerous mission that claims Joe's life, Nellie realizes that life is too short not to seize her own chance for happiness, thus confronting and conquering her prejudices.
