This is a tale that we want to believe in, that creates a world we seem to desperately desire, free of commercialism, where love and decency and generosity of spirit are their own rewards. By chance, Kris Kringle, an old man in a retirement home, gets a job working as Santa for Macy's. Kris unleashes waves of good will with Macy's customers and the commercial world of New York City by referring parents to other stores to find exactly the toy their child has asked for. Seen as deluded and dangerous by Macy's vocational counselor, who plots to have Kris shanghaied to Bellevue Psychiatric Hospital, Kris ends up in a court competency hearing. Especially at stake is one little girl's belief in Santa. In a dramatic decision, the court confirms Kris as the true Santa, allowing Susan and countless other children to experience the joy of childhood fantasy.

Oklahoma!* announced as the 2013 musical

Auditions: December 17 & 18, 6:30 pm -8:30 p.m.
Cast available: Principles 3 women, 4 men, large singing ensemble
Directed by: Sue Beukema & Rachel Faidley
Production: March 15, 16, 17, 21, 22 & 22, 2013

Rodgers & Hammerstein's first collaboration remains, in many ways, their most innovative. Set in a Western Indian territory just after the turn of the century, the high-spirited rivalry between the local farmers and cowboys provides the colorful background against which Curly, a handsome cowboy, and Laurey, a winsome farm girl, play out their love story. Although the road to true love never runs smooth, with these two headstrong romantics holding the reins, love's journey is as bumpy as a surrey ride down a country road. Add into the mix Aunt Eller, Jud Fry, the hired hand, Laurey's friend Ado Annie and Will Parker just returning from Kansas City. That Curly and Laurey will succeed in making a new life together we have no doubt, and that this new life will begin in a brand-new state provides the ultimate climax to the triumphant OKLAHOMA!
